

Fly To The Sky, Star (like Shining Stars)

I've been through many separations so it didn't frighten me as it did at first.
Even without giving much thought, as seasons passed, I naturally forgot.
If it was a special kind of love, then I would've realized it.
I left you in tears, as an excuse from explaining myself.
Why can I only see it from a distance, my love.
Why couldn't I see it when we were together?
Forgive me for realizing you were the one so late.
Truthfully, my love that you've been awaiting is different than yours.
When I miss you, tears fall I only have faded memories of the one I love .
Why can I only see it from a distance, my love.
Why couldn't I see it when we were together?
Forgive me for realizing you were the one so late.
The sparkling stars don't shine their light towards me.
From this distance I can feel how special you are.
I know I sent you away, forgive me baby.
I'm hoping you'll trust a fool like me just once and return to me.
