

Fly To The Sky, Still

The precious memories in me
In which I can't hesitate any longer...
Suddenly, tears fall from the thoughts of you
*The times with you that I wanted to hold onto
They make me struggle so much
Help me, so that I can let you go
** Can't believe I was blind but you're still in my heart
Just as much tears you are shedding
Sorry I made you cry Thinking of you at times
I will miss you, forever
I will probably forget about you little by little...
Those memories I had with you..
Suddenly tears fall from the thoughts of you
(* , ** Repeat)
Even if your heart hurts trying to forget me,
Even if it's so exhausting
I will get to forget you little by little
Even the warmth of your body, even your eyes
Hurts deep inside
(** Repeat x 2)
