

Fly To The Sky, To You, Who's Come Back

You don't have to keep saying that you're sorry Because you only lost me for a moment when you were blinded by another love
I'm the one whose thankful that you didn't lose your way back
I know because I love you girl
For all that I hurt, you had a hard time
I know because I love you girl
Don't be sorry, I'm able to smile again now that you're here
So fine
Just like how you don't hesitate and let out a held in breath Even if I hide the longing creeping up my throat and look at you nonchalantly, I am still scared that I will wake up from this dream where you've come back
I know because I love you girl
For all that I hurt, you had a hard time
I know because I love you girl
Don't be sorry, I'm able to smile again now that you're here
So fine
Don't cry anymore
I was the weak one who let you go so easily
I know that is was all my fault for gouging your heart and letting you go, even though it pained me
Hold you
When I hold you again, I feel like I might fall into a deep sleep; it's so comfortable
Love you
Even I can't believe that I lived on without you
I know because I love you girl
For all that I hurt, you had a hard time
I know because I love you girl
Don't be sorry, I'm able to smile again now that you're here
So fine
