

Fly To The Sky, Warning

I'll never let you go,
Don't think that you can stray
Don't think that you got it all
Don't think as you please
Don't act as you please
I'll never let you go,
Don't think that you can stray
You're making a mistake,
You're going to get hurt,
It's about time you got tired of it already
The things you call freedom,
Everything is going as you want now
You're not in my area (O.o) Anymore.
Unsure ness, I can't lose you to the dangerous seduction.
Quietly, listen to my heart now.
You're only rambling on by yourself and not even saying much You gave up all of my freedom
I'm going crazy, I need you lady,
I give you everything you need so say you love me,
You need to stop.
What's it gonna be now,
Even though you played me you're the one that I need now,
Why? (why)
I don't even know with the things you do to me,
I should just let you go away!
