

Fly To The Sky, Yellow Butterfly

As I think back to that time I spent so sorrowfully
I was blinded by defeat and tears that the tunnel was just so dark
But then you told me not to stop
And I violently raised my fist all because of your arrogant patronizing all for just one victory
You know this is one step
and then it's two steps
If it means getting where I want,
then I won't wear a mask and avoid it
It won't stop me Fly high
This is one step
and then it's two steps I'm not passing out again
There won't be any crying for me cause I'm not afraid of the world now
The rain that the desert had wanted buries it in shade
I'm going back to the time that I couldn't stop (Can U make it what did I say)
But then you told me not to stop
And I violently raised my fist all because of your arrogant
patronizing all for just one victory
You know this is one step
and then it's two steps
If it means getting where I want,
then I won't wear a mask and avoid it
It won't stop me Fly high
This is one step
and then it's two steps I'm not passing out again
There won't be any crying for me cause I'm not afraid of the world now Now the worldly standards that I was always faced with are going to you baby where you're on your knees
You know this is one step
and then it's two steps
If it means getting where I want,
then I won't wear a mask and avoid it
It won't stop me Fly high (Baby don't ever let it go)
This is one step
and then it's two steps I'm not passing out again
There won't be any crying for me cause I'm not afraid of the world now
Don't wanna cry now Don't wanna lie now maybe I ma just make it through babe what about you common and say go hm~I'm not passing out Don't worry but baby
Don't worry but baby (Looking to my eyes)
You know this is one step
