

Flying Blind, Walk Of Shame

All eyes on me
catastrophe
I don't believe astrology
what i choose
i pay my dues
thats all okay
my egos bruised

hear the sounds
falling from their mouths
and i know
its me who went insane
can't put out the flame
along the walk of shame

last night i spent
throwing out my scent that really wasn't
what i meant
eyebrows i raised
in a drunken haze
and I'm the only one who pays ohhh no!

everybody knows!

and i see

he's the only who came
