

Flyleaf, Believe In Dreams

I know, days will come and go
Maybe I'll grow old, but I will die
For now, is it worth it to be sad
It is harder to be glad to be alive
With the trouble I have caused
I wonder where do I belong

Is it here

Believe in dreams you love so much
Let the passion of your heart make them real
And tell all the ones you love
Anything and everything you feel

Laugh about the past
And secretly wish we could go back
And save the child

As I look around this room
See the worried eyes, they know
It's time we cannot buy
Was this worth the time to write?
Was this worth the time to write?

Believe in dreams
I believe in dreams
I believe in dreams
I believe in you

Believe in dreams you love so much
Let the passion of your heart make them real
And tell all the ones you love
Anything and everything you feel

Believe in dreams
I believe in dreams
