

Flyleaf, Breathe Today

You can only move as fast as
Who's in front of you.
And if you assume
Just like them,
What good will it do?
So find out for yourself,
So your ignorance
Will stop bleeding through.

You can breathe, ooh, today.

So many lies swirling
All around you,
You're suffocating!
The empty shape in you
Steals your breath,
You're suffocating!

Logic forces me to believe in this,
And I have learned to see.
And I can only say what I've seen and heard,
And only you can choose.
And every choice you make will affect you,
Search your own self.

You can breathe, ooh, today.

So many lies swirling
All around you,
You're suffocating!
The empty shape in you
Steals your breath,
You're suffocating!
[x2]

Breathe!

Big enough to fill the void that's inside of you,
It's just a breath away. (away)

So many lies swirling
All around you,
You're suffocating!
The empty shape in you
Steals your breath,
You're suffocating!

So many lies swirling
All around you,
You're suffocating!
The empty shape in you
Steals your breath...
Breathe!

So many lies swirling
All around you,
You're suffocating!
Breathe!
The empty shape in you...
Breathe today!
