Flyleaf, I'm So Sick (Demo Version)

I will break into your thoughts
With what's written on my heart.
I will break!

You broke into my thoughts,
This invasion makes me feel
Worthless, hopeless, sick!
I'm so sick!

If you want more of this,
We can push out, sell out, die out.
So you'll shut up,
And stay sleeping
With my screaming in your itching ears.

I'm so sick,
Infected with where I live.
Let me live without this
Empty bliss, selfishness.
Let me live...

Hear it!
I'm screaming it!
You're heeding to it now.

You broke into my thoughts,
This invasion makes me feel
Worthless, hopeless, sick!
I'm so sick!

I'm so sick,
Infected with where I live.
Let me live without this
Empty bliss, selfishness.
Let me live...

I reveal
What you steal from
All of us,
We take it back...
We take it back!

You broke into into my thoughts,
This invasion makes me feel
Worthless, hopeless, sick!
I'm so sick!

But I heal,
With this story, always working, constant purpose.
But I heal...
I won't compromise and I heal.
