

Foals, Exits

now the sea eats sky but they say it's a lie and there's no bird left to fly we'll hide out

the weather is against us we build houses underground and flowers upside down
in our dreams

in the eye of the storm in the land where you were born we try to make no sound we hide out

cause the watch us in sleep and the language that we speak and the secrets that we keep
in our dreams
in our dreams
in our dreams
in our dreams

I said I am o sorry to have kept you wating around I wish I could've come up I could've shouted out loud but they got exits covered all the exits underground I wish I could figure it out but the world's upside down in a world upside down

you dream this all off in the islands of the mind the places they can't find

the black sky came down the cities underground the flowers upside down in our d4ams

you meet you again to pass you on the stairs to see you everywhere in my dreams
