

Focal Point, Deception

deception

as I pass through your eyes of judgment, you make speculations about my life that what you think is real innocent and you still pass judgment when you are alone, I know just what you think and I hope the silence makes your ears wring
RING
look at yourself before you look at me don't persecute me look at yourself before you persecute innocent and you still pass judgment
