

Focused, Absence

Darkness is not the opposite of light
it is the absence of it,
truth is not ones opinion but the knowing through understanding.

Preconceived ideas based on ignorance will always change.
But the knowledge of God will always remain the same.

Different measures are intended to mislead for the manufacturing of hypocrisy.

The naive believe in everything.
But the wise will consider every step.
Be cautious and turn away.
Refuse to be careless and arrogant.

I refuse to sell my soul to a mindless system.
Why would I contribute to the absence of my identity?
