

Focused, Forever

Victory is mine as I recover from my wrong doings.
Taste my tears endure hardships that I've been through.
Tear up the grief I've heaped upon myself.
Sacrifice me forever.

Fire of love addicted to the light,
unseen the wonders of your hand.
Like a sword - two sided - sharpened edge
I'll cut through the evil that enslaves me.
I will prevail and learn from my mistakes.
Sacrifice me forever.

Hebrews 13:20-21...

Now may the God of peace who raised the Christ from the dead.
Great shepherd of sheep
and through the very blood of the everlasting covenant.
Make me complete in every work
to do your will pleasing in your sight
throughout Christ to whom be the glory forever and ever.
