

Foghat, Comin' Down With Love

Dave Peverett - Riff Bros. Music - ASCAP

Look at me, I'm back in love again,
No reason to lie, there'll be no need to pretend.
I've got a feeling that's burning me up,
All I need is one sip of your sweet lovin' cup.

Oh babe, I can't go on without you,
Love is something that I never knew.
Oh babe, I'm really losing my mind,
Come to me baby just one more time, yeah.

Every girl that I see go by,
Sure makes me hungry for my sweet honey pie.
I get dizzy and my knees get weak,
My hand starts trembling and I can't hardly speak.

Oh babe, I can't go on without you,
Love is something that I never knew.
Oh babe, I'm really losing my mind,
Come to me baby, just one more time, yeah.

I'm comin' down with love all over again,
I'm comin' down with love all over again, yeah.

Somebody help me, well I'm fallin' apart,
I need something to kill this feeling deep in my heart.
I start to shake and shiver, send in the nurse,
If I don't get some loving soon, I'm gonna get worse.

Oh babe, I can't go on without you,
Love is something that I never knew.
Oh babe, I'm really losing my mind,
Come to me baby, just one more time, yeah.

I'm comin' down with love all over again,
I'm comin' down with love all over again, yeah.
Whoo!

{Dave - Solo}

I'm comin' down with love all over again,
I'm comin' down with love all over again.

Night and day love, you're on my mind,
Every beat of my heart is right on time.
Something I can't hide, this feeling deep inside,
It keeps me satisfied, come with me, come with me.

I'm comin' down with love all over again,
I'm comin' down with love all over again.

I'm comin' down with love all over again, oh,
I'm comin' down with love all over again, again and again, oh, yeah.
