

Fold Zandura, Deep Surround running into dangersands again now im falling where i used to stand rush into the raging surf with me my only in, my only out

the deep surround

oceans crashing around me
the moon and the stars are gone when the darkness comes to pull me down when light fails, when im weak you are strong racing against the madness of my life im stumbling at every step and slipping at every slide one glimmer of hope i never thought i would see my only in, my only out

the deep surround

you are stronger!

my only out, my only out,
the deep surround

when life fails, when im weak
you are strong
