

Fold Zandura, Ember

mrs. jaded
loved a man whose passion had faded away!
so she waited for the day when the fire returned but it never came

what she said to me:
love's like the seasons, remember love's promised spring and summer will melt away with December
...see for yourself

mr. vision
saw the future then found religion sacred glitter-free salvation took the patience of saints so he cursed the time he wasted away what he said was:

faith's like the flowing waters a fierce and raging river will calm and still in like weather think for yourself, speak for yourself, see if it's true

if it's true

just like the seasons, untender life burns in spring and summer but fades away like these embers the worlds elusive, remember where love's the leaf faith, the river what's born as flame dies in ember
