

Fold Zandura, Mad Into

im hearing music for the first time colours my eyes have never seen up where the trees can touch the sky and you take me there and im mad into you

more than sometimes i feel ive been away all my life
now here with you
im finally home
tonight

i feel the rush like a landslide down where the ocean rises so high when you take me there

im finally home

if theres a place ive never been will you take me there
