

Fold Zandura, Tonight Forever

now maybe im wrong but i cant see myself in your eyes and maybe its taken so long just to uncover whats been there all this time we never believed in each other

dont say tonight is forever youre fooling yourself
were fading
were slowly losing the wonder
if nothing else
of being in love (being in love)

would you admit from the start anything was better than speaking our minds? and now would it tear us apart to rediscover what we left behind? i just cant believe we let it slip away cant say tonight is forever were fooling ourselves

were fading
were slowly losing the wonder
if nothing else
of staying in love (staying in love) failing with words when its all that we can do to be heard and when did we ever listen?

were fooling ourselves
were fading
if nothing else

being in love being in love
