

Folksongs For The Afterlife, Lockaway

I wanna lock away your perfect smile
Just for awhile
Maybe for a long while

When you're giving me that perfect smile
I go out of my mind
Trying to slow down time

I'm not in it for the peace of mind
But what can I do
If I want that too?

And maybe we're just wasting time
Hedging our bets
I don't know yet
