

Fonzie, More Than A Friend

Mon and Dad are sitting outside wondering what to do with their lives you gotta show them it's not so bad

No one knows what happened to you you're losing all the family crew you're doing' time, just to tell the truth yeah you're crying for freedom so take a look in a mirror you're feeling bad

you're understand
what's falling apart

so stop
there's no doubt
yeah yeah
you need more than a good friend did you really think about that sometimes all we need it's find God to help us out when there's no way out living your own way, with no rules dealing with your different moods so hold my hand and we'll find the truth

you're feeling bad
you're understand
what's falling apart

there's no doubt
yeah yeah

so please don't cry
