

Fonzie, Move Into You

Breaking out of nowhere
There's a fading echo that says
"I'm waiting for you again"
Where I'm gonna find you
When I'm gonna see you again
I've been on my own so long

Going out of no land
Wasting all my nights away
I've been in the rain too long
Loosing all my seasons
Show them all the reasons to say
To say that you are the one

Always down
Waiting for a miracle
To move into you with my soul (x2)

I'm looking all around
I'm sure that I'll find out
Something good, yeah
Something good
I move from North to South
I'm sure that I'll find out
Something good, yeah
Something good

Always down (always)
Waiting for a miracle
To move into you with my soul (x2)
