

Fonzie, Say Hello

Good bye, so sorry I gotta go Bring you back, hold you tight it's all I want

Don't leave me
believe me
my eyes will stand on you
you feel me
and you need it
you know my life is you

I don't wanna stay alone,
so I'll be here before you know

Say hello, say hello
'cause tomorrow from the heart
We'll erase all the pain and loss
Say hello, say hello
In the morning with the sun
We will find what the future holds

Good bye, I look up and you're standing fall you're shaking, your heart's breaking you're gonna fall

Don't leave me
believe me
you feel me
and you need it
you know my life is you

I don't wanna stay alone,
so I'll be here before you know

Say hello, say hello
'cause tomorrow from the heart
We'll erase all the pain and loss
Say hello, say hello
In the morning with the sun
We will find what the future holds

So kiss me once before I go
