

Fonzie, Sorry (This Is All We've Got)

This is all I've got from you there's nowhere, nowhere to go could I've done the same with you there's no way, yeah no way to know

As I see you up and you see me down with no home and no place to go

Sorry, this is my world sorry, I do this for love
what makes you think I won't make it alone

This what I've learned from you there's somewhere somewhere to go
is something that you'll never know

with no home and no place to go

what makes you think I won't make it alone

There is no hands tide there is just fools pride there is life passed by and there's no time to say goodbye
