

Foo Fighters, I'm Alone Again

All the things I said I wanted turned out to be heaven haunted
Every time I dream I'm sharing
All the things that I tried pairing too

If the thought could ever barter
Time enough to make a pedal
Now I might help any other
Now that's it I'll simply ponder you.
It's hard to recognize that's all
True it wasn't that at all

I'm alone again
Never thought I'd see the one I told you
Head is along
Over now
I'm alone again
Never thought I'd see the one I told you
Head is along

All the things I said I wanted
Turned out to be heaven haunted
Every time the dream I'm sharing
All the things that I tried pairing too
If the thought could ever barter
Time enough to make a pedal
Now I might help any other
Now that's it I'll simply ponder you.
It's hard to recognize that's all
True it wasn't that at all

I'm alone again
Never thought I'd see the one I told you
Head is along
Over Now
I'm alone again
Never thought I'd see the one I told you
Head is along
Over now
I'm alone again
Never thought I'd see the one I told you
