

Foo Fighters, Live-In Skin

Take your payroll, and your lottery,
There's a place I know,
There's a robbery, and I swear I'll never tell
If you swear you'll never tell, and
We'll all make out so well
We will all make out so well

Head on with my hate, into the lights ahead
I'm amazed that I'm still standing
And I demand that we all blend in
I'm amounted

Just the same old glitter story
From the sea floor, metamorphosis
And I can't change back for you
I will not change back for you
I must live in skin that's new
I'm a livid skin that's new

Head on with my hate, into the lights ahead
I'm amazed that I'm still standing
And I demand that we all blend in

I'm amounted

Turn your insides out to the outside
Turn the outside in to the inside,
Trade your outside in for the inside
Turn it around again, I'm amounted

And I cant change back for you
No I cant change back for you
