

Fool's Garden, Count On Me

You came from out of nowhere
Where will you go ?
It seems youve always been there
What do we know ?
Youve put your life in our hands
Will we ever know why
Youre so pure , you just say what youre thinking
You make everything so deep

In your smile, in your eyes
I can see so much of my life
Let your dreams always lead
Ill be there for you whenever you need
Count on me

When youre weary and troubled
And when all their rules try to put you down
Keep your head always high and dont care what they say
Be yourself and ignore what theyre thinking
The most beautiful souls sometimes bleed

In your smile, in your eyes
I can see so much of my life
Let your dreams always lead
Ill be there for you whenever you need
Count on me

They will shake you
Try to break you
But i know that theyll never succeed
Cause you are strong
Yes youre so strong

In your smile, in your eyes
I can see so much of my life
Let your dreams always lead
Ill be there for you whenever you need
Count on me
Count on me
Count on me
