Fool's Garden, Fall For Her

(Hinkel)

I wonder where you are While all the hopes inside my heart just fall apart It's preying on my mind but I'm still at a loss of words They're so hard to find

But now I fall for her I wonder how I could explain the reason why And when I fall for her I can't believe we have to say goodbye

This shadow on the wall
Is still your picture in my eyes
And I'm paralysed
A piece of broken glass
Some scraps of paper on the floor
Now there's nothing more

Still I will fall for her I wonder how I could explain the reason why And when I fall for her I can't believe we have to say goodbye

When my thoughts became too strained Then I was slowly sinking like raindrops in the sand While your voice was in my ears I was slowly drowning in the sea of my own tears

But now I fall And now I fall

And I will fall for her
I wonder how I could explain the reason why
And when I fall for her
I can't believe we have to say ?goodbye
