

Fool's Garden, One Fine Day

(Hinkel / Freudenthaler)

Who's gonna cover me when I shiver in a frigo
in a house of steel?
And who's gonna kill the pain?
Is it me? It is me!
Close my eyes ?pass the door

Walk up on a stormy, cloudy day
You can colour the grey sky, grey sky
Walk up on a stony, narrow way
Sun ?one fine day

Who's gonna follow me when I leave a little trace behind?
And who's gonna call my name when I'll attain a new land?
Close my eyes ?pass the door

Walk up on a stormy, cloudy day
You can colour the grey sky, grey sky
Walk up on a stony, narrow way
Sun ?one fine day

Looking at the surface
but the beauty is inside
I see the colours change
Should I bow myself and pray
Should I be afraid of bad news
Should I move myself or stay
Turn another page now
Don't you think about your constitution
Open the cage now
Ev'ryday's a revolution
Open the cage now
No time to weigh
I'll turn another page ?one fine day
