

Foolproof, After Dinner Mint

You spill, you spilled your drink inside of me and
And I think I like it better being warm
Like a bullet, come on and dance in me
And tell me what you see inside
What's on the menu now?

And take my hand
And tell me what your waiting for
Tell me why your waiting
'Cause I know
And take my hand
And scream to me your symphony
So I know why your waiting

And you rest to test the weight on top of me and
And I think just for you that I can bear it
Like a bullet you came and ripped through me
And still you see me bleed inside
I think I'm gonna take this down

One more shot and I'll be dead
Connect the dots inside my head
I said I'll try and get this done
Take my hand and tell me what your waiting for
Tell me why your waiting, waiting

And take my hand
And tell me what your waiting for
Tell me why your waiting
'Cause I know
And take my hand
And scream to me your symphony
So I know why your waiting
