

Footloose, I'm Free (Heaven Helps The Man)

Looking into your eyes I know I'm right
If there's anything worth the fear, it's worth the fight
No one can tie my hands, or make me change my plans
I'm crossing the line, I'm jumping the track
I'm taking what's mine and not looking back

Heaven helps the man who fights his fears
Everyday I face a new frontier
I can't worry what the world will say
I may fly or fall but either way
I'M FREE

Doesn't matter where you go I guarantee
As long as we hold our ground
We cannot be bound
Shaking the past, Making our breaks
Taking control if that's what it takes

Heaven helps the man who fights his fears
We can face it down right now, right here
Once you're standing on your own two feet
You will not retreat if you repeat
I'M FREE
