

Foretaste, Keep Me Satisfied

I can't believe it's simple, to be with you Sometimes it's hard to resist, to live with you

I still don't understand You're fighting to be mine I'm fighting to deserve now, to be with you

I never meant to hurt you, you know it's true I never meant to make you cry, you i've tried

I've love you from the start, you tried to change my mind i'm fighting to be free now, you know that's true

I'm still defending cause I can't sell my soul for every word and every move every loving sign
and everybody knows
that everyone would fall
for all this beauty, all your smiles to keep me satisfied

I can't believe it's simple, to make you cry Sometimes it's hard to resist, when i'm with you

I still don't understand, you're fighting to be ine
I'm fighting to deserve now, to be with you

I'm still defending
for every word and every move
and everybody knows
that everyone would fall
for all this beauty, all your smiles
to keep me satisfied
