

Forever Changed, Something More

It's how your love always changes me.
I see that time after time,
You've carried me on your wings.

When I close my eyes, I see you staring back at mine.
You've never looked so beautiful, never looked so beautiful.
Now, I wanna mean something more to you.
So I will hold on, you've got to hold on.
Now, I wanna mean something more to you.
So I will hold on, you've got to hold on.

I'll stand still, now - I'm dying to hear your voice.
How the weight of your words is clarity through the noise.
If I could spend more time looking through this heart of mine
I'd finally be next to you, I'd finally be next to you.

Now, I wanna mean something more to you.
So I will hold on, you've got to hold on.

And I feel this way tonight.
I wanna make it right.
I wanna mean something...
And I feel this way tonight.
I wanna make it right.
I've never needed you, more than I need you now
