

Forever Is Forgotten, Destroying a Lifetime of Inn

your sickness comes when you let go from
what we held together
now I see where I went wrong you'll take your last breath I left drowning in
your eternal voice
everyday it grows stronger when you lose the
will to hold on now
we can not be destroyed
i won't give up
on this life
we can not forget
we can not survive
with out the passions
to break this silence I can't handle being without alone I frightened of death and since you left
my heart is black
fill myself
with this anguish
holding onto your soul
I can't wipe these tears
sadness pins me down
and since the day
that you left us
the day has been so dark I won't let
you fade away
we love you
