

Forever Is Forgotten, Tied to a Strangers Hand

may I and may you,
will I say
will you say
and when I beg please I know you wont
the last time i'll notice and wonder how are you take me as I am
with bruises and smiles
as my voice breaks
my sweater and I
will forget all about you will you make the sun
wait for you
as you wander amongst the clouds and when I decide to outshine it times and troubles
will be buried
mention me
and remain yourself
a nervous execution
so I see you no longer
every time ill feel again
will be without you I bleed the rain
drip me from angels cheeks sometimes i'll cry I love you and I wont mention it otherwise self to self, heart to heart life to life, death to death the while of your eyes destroys me and so i'll hide in the darkness
