

Forever Slave, The Letter

My dear friend
I write this letter
because my words
cant be heard

Tears of sorrow
break this silence
while your soul is flying
a long way from here

Along the shore
your soul reduced to dust

I'll keep the memories in my heart and your soul in my mind.
You're leaving here forever
to a place of Avalon.

Along the ocean
the storm reduced
your soul to ashes

- I have lost my dreams
- Today your life is a whisper for the angels
- No please! No! I must find a new way
- Darling...You have left in the world what you knew
