

Forever the Fallen, Green Lights; Electric Ocean

Don't turn back, your life's worth more than this
And you'll be alright, you'll find a way out
And when you finally realize
I'll be waiting for you
With open arms this time
Come down from your words of Saying, you'll never turn back
I see it in your eyes
I find, your light now fades to black
And when, you succumb
To the, terrors that lie awake
It will, be the end
To a gift only God could take
Don't turn back, your life's worth more than this
And you'll be alright, you'll find a way out
And when you finally realize
I'll be waiting for you
With open arms this time [x2]
Bu there's nothing I can do
Butt here's nothing
Leaving you behind has now
Become an option
But I, Wont give up on you
I wont give up
As long
As there's breath in my lungs
There will, be a way
(As long as there's breath in my lungs
There will be,
There will be a way)
And all along
I never though you to be
The type to take your weakness
And alter it to strength
That all you love in life
Slowly given away
By the hands
That just couldn't hold
And I want you to know
That one day
I believe
Things will be back to normal
And when that day comes
I'll be there waiting
With open arms I'll be waiting
