

Forgive-Me-Not, Midnight World

Another place of loneliness Where I keep sorrow in my heart
When I can feel the last kiss of fate
Like snakebite
Nothing to hate
No one can stop my sadness
Things that I say
Don't need the revelation

Now break the silence,
forget your shame
Don't try to run away
from your pain
With bloody hunger,
inside my chest
I drawn in midnight world
It's my guest

I wandered lonely as a cloud
I've got the time to think, to find
I see wet fingers of the rain
By my side
Nothing to hate
No one can stop my sadness
Things that I say
Don't need the revelation

Now break the silence,
forget your shame
Don't try to run away
from your pain
With bloody hunger,
inside my chest
I drawn in midnight world
It's my guest...
