

Forgotten Rebels, The Punks Are Alright

I don't mind another guy fking with my girl
If he does, she can get the hell out of my world
Get it into your head, all your morals are dead
I'm your leader instead 'cause the punks are alright
Sometimes, I feel like it's not worth trying
There's times when I can't even bother crying
Get it into your head, rock and roll has gone dead
I'm a punk and it's me instead 'cause the punks are alright
You know, I can't help feeling pissed off
There's days when I feel like getting lost
I don't mind some bureaucrats trying to rip me off
I got their number and I just might have them tossed
'Cause they'll lead us to hell, but we'll all live to tell
It's their time to bid farewell 'cause the punks are alright
The punks are alright.
