

Format, Give It Up

Well i made my way back down to the valley, right on past 83rd street that's where we once belonged
Long gone

[chorus]

So give it, throw your hats in the air and change just as they land youre saying "we'll get out of here
But something tells me your'e too scared to go so the stairs that you could climb are the ones you've Eyes light up when we talk about the past god i miss those songs we used to sing, talking like getting
Greatest thing well me, i got out, and you kept singing to me like that's really going to set this free

[chorus]

Like a ghost youve been haunting all these dusty old roads and old homes the ones we swore we'd
Oh ive seen him around then theres adam, hes afraid to go out i dont blame him, i just wanted to go
Goddamn i wish him the best we were kids back then as if we could progress but sometimes i just Everything we could have been

[chorus]
