

Format, On Your Porch

I was on your porch,
The smoke sank into my skin
So I came inside to be with you
And we talked all night, about everything We could imagine
'Cause come the morning I'll be gone
And as our eyes start to close
I turn to you, and I let you know
That I Love you.

Well my dad was sick, and my mom she cared for him
Her love it nursed him back to life
And me I ran, I couldn't even look at him
For fear I'd have to say goodbye
And as I start to leave
He grabs me by the shoulder and he tells me
What's left to lose? You've done enough
And if you fail, well then you fail but not to us.
'Cause these last three years, I know they've been hard
But now it's time to get out of the desert and into the sun
Even if it's alone.

So now here I sit
In a hotel off of sunset
My thoughts bounce off of Sams guitar
And that's the way its been
Ever since we were kids but now, now we've got something to prove
And I, I can see their eyes
But tell me something, can they see mine?
'Cause whats left to lose?
I've done enough
And if I fail, well then I fail but I gave it a shot
And these last three years, I know they've been hard
But now it's time to get out of the desert and into the sun
Even if it's alone.

I was on your porch last night, the smoke it sank into my skin.
