

Forty Deuce, Oh My God

I'm facing all of my regrets
I'm taking all that I can get It's right in front of me, but I don't wanna see

I guess I'll never understand it
It never goes how I planned it
I'm not afraid of taking chances
How come I'm shit out of luck?

Oh my God I fucked up again!
My whole life is the same mistake
and I try and I try to find my way out but I know that I'll fuck up again

I am the habit that I can break
And I don't know another way
Should I be satisfied with what I leave behind?

I guess I'll never understand it
It never goes how I planned
I'm not afraid of taking chances
How come I'm a shit out of luck?

Oh my God I fucked up again!
My whole life is the same mistake
and I try and I try to find my way out
but I know that I'll fuck up again

Maybe I need a second chance...
Or maybe this is who I am

I guess I'll never understand it
It never goes how I planned
I'm not afraid of taking chances
How come I'm a shit out of luck?

Oh my God I fucked up again!
My whole life is one mistake
and I try and I try to find my way out
but I know that I'll fuck up again
