

Forty Foot Echo, What If I Don't

You give yourself a higher grade
You've come undone
I'll take my life and go away
Hit the ground and run

Got to wait
Got to fight for the simple life
It's time for rebellion, oh

What if I don't deserve you at all
You keep on waiting for apologies
I don't care, I don't have to leave you alone
Something ain't right cuz I'm sick of you
What if I don't

You take me down and fly away
I'm overcome
I can't be found and left astray
I've come undone

Got to wait
Got to fight for the simple life
It's time for rebellion, oh

What if I don't deserve you at all
You keep on waiting for apologies
I don't care, I don't have to leave you alone
Something ain't right cuz I'm sick of you
What if I don't
What if I don't

I walk down the Road you always try to follow
Why don't you just go away

What if I don't deserve you at all
You keep on waiting for apologies
I don't care, I don't have to leave you alone
Something ain't right so I'm sick of you
So sick of you, so sick of you, yeah
You want it all
What if I don't
What if I don't
