Forty Foot Echo, What If I Don't

You give yourself a higher grade You've come undone I'll take my life and go away Hit the ground and run

Got to wait Got to fight for the simple life It's time for rebellion, oh

What if I don't deserve you at all You keep on waiting for apoligies I don't care, I don't have to leave you alone Something ain't right cuz I'm sick of you What if I don't

You take me down and fly away I'm overcome
I can't be found and left astray I've come undone

Got to wait Got to fight for the simple life It's time for rebellion, oh

What if I don't deserve you at all You keep on waiting for apoligies I don't care, I don't have to leave you alone Something ain't right cuz I'm sick of you What if I don't What if I don't

I walk down the Road you always try to follow Why don't you just go away

What if I don't deserve you at all You keep on waiting for apoligies I don't care, I don't have to leave you alone Something ain't right so I'm sick of you So sick of you, so sick of you, yeah You want it all What if I don't What if I don't
