

Four Jacks And A Jill, I Looked Back

I looked back to see if you looked back
And you looked back to see if I looked back
To see if you looked back to see if I was lookin' at you

I looked back to see if you looked back
When you looked back I felt my heart strings snap
And then the thunderclap, and felt the lightning strikin' at me

Then I stood still, then you stood still
The world stood still, our hearts stood still
And oh, the thrill, that suddenly we knew the very very moment

I looked back to see if you looked back
And you looked back to see if I looked back
To see if you looked back to see if I was lookin' at you

La la la-la-la la la la la
La la la-la-la la la la la-la-la
La la la-la, la la la-la, la la la la la

Then I stood still, then you stood still
The world stood still, our hearts stood still
And oh, the thrill, that suddenly we knew the very very moment

I looked back to see if you looked back
And you looked back to see if I looked back
To see if you looked back to see if I was lookin' at you

La la-la la la-la la-la la-la la la
La la-la la la-la la-la la-la la la
La la-la la la-la la-la la-la la la...
