

Four Star Mary, Sway

can't keep living this way i've got another rope over me but i won't hang
i can feel you covet my faith
i've said another lie
and i know why
i don't want to sway

seize these worlds
or never live again

won't stop living for days you know i've rolled it over in my head
i won't feel you covet my faith you've said another lie
and i know why

seize these worlds

i can't keep living this way i've got another rope
and i won't hang
i won't feel you touching my faith you say i'm touching him and touching her
but i don't want to sway
i don't want to sway

i can't change
i won't change
