

Fozzy, To Kill A Stranger

I'm drowning
In the shadows
That creep in my mind
And it's hard to escape
When there's no place
Left for me to hide

And I keep on running
from the blood on my hands
The battle is won but
Will it ever end

And who am I
To kill a stranger
After all that
We've been through
And who am I
To kill a stranger
After all that
We've been through

Darkness has engulfed
All the light in my life
And my thirst to kill
Has grown stronger
Over time

And I keep on running
From the blood on my hands
The battle is won
but will it ever end

And who am I
To kill a stranger
After all that
We've been through?
And who am I
To kill a stranger
After all that
We've been through?

-Solo-

It's the fever that yearns
For the the thrill of the kill

And I keep on running
from the blood on my hands
The battle is won but
Will it ever end

And who am I
To kill a stranger
After all that
We've been through
And who am I
To kill a stranger
After all that
we've been through

Who am I
A little stranger
And now I'm killing you
