

Fra Lippo Lippi, Crazy Wisdom

See it in the eagle flying
See it in a snowflake falling Feel the wind right through your hair
Now take a bow and have your share

See it in the children playing See it in a steam of laughter
Memories might fade away
Let's celebrate a brand new day
cause life will call out and sing
Life makes it hard not to believe

*And why should everybody need to know every single why and how Got no other, need no other means to carry on

See it in the evening colours
See it in the open wheatfield Swaying softly in the breeze
With all the grace and all the ease

See it in that crazy moment
When all is one and one is all It's everywhere you'll ever go It's everything you'll ever know
cause life will call out and sing
life makes it hard not to believe

*repeat
