

Fra Lippo Lippi, Later

&quot;Later&quot;

How could you come with me when you knew all along that you had to go How could you watch me sleep so close to you pretending not to know How could you memorize my name and forget who i am How could you think you're still the same believing i can

Chorus:

It's too late to start pretending It's too late for a new beginning Later than the sunset, later than the rain Later than I never to love you again

How could you ask for more with an innocent smile trusting me to stay How could you close the door and leave me here supposing i'm ok
How could you breakdown my disguise and uncover my fears How could you look into my eyes ignoring my tears

( Repeat Chorus )
