

Fractured, Bleed

The last mistake,
you'll ever make.
Lie in bed, wide awake.
Troubled thoughts,
plague on the mind
of the life,
that you have left behind.

Resurrected,
organs interconnected,
all signs of life on-line
of the being so divine.
Challenge thoughts of
tortured reality,
all I want
is to see you bleed.

Disease
what's left in me.
Destroy what's left,
deep down inside of me.
Pray for you,
and pray for me,
pray to live,
pray to bleed.

Resurrected,
organs interconnected,
all signs of life on-line
of the being so divine.
Challenge thoughts of
tortured reality,
all I want
is to see you bleed.

Inception,
creation,
leads us
into temptation.
Bleed,
cry,
focus,
then deny.

Resurrected,
organs interconnected,
all signs of life on-line
of the being so divine.
Challenge thoughts of
tortured reality,
all I want
is to see you bleed.
