

Fragma, Who Needs A Reason

Somebody told me I was wasting my time hanging out with you
But when you touch me I am sure it's the right thing to do
There's something keeping me warm down inside after all this time
I just don't care what it is as long as you are mine

Who needs a reason for a heartache or two
Who needs the sadness coming out of the blue
No explanation for this feeling so true
Who needs a reason when the reason is you

When people tell me 'bout the things in my life that were right for me
I turn around and shake my head 'cause they I just can't see
You are the reason I get up every day and I dream at night
About the smile upon your face and I feel alright

Who needs a reason for a heartache or two
Who needs the sadness coming out of the blue
No explanation for this feeling so true
Who needs a reason when the reason is you

And when you speak my name I wonder if this is reality
I hardly can believe that this is happening to me

There's something keeping me warm down inside after all this time
I just don't care what it is as long as you are mine

Who needs a reason for a heartache or two
Who needs the sadness coming out of the blue
No explanation for this feeling so true
Who needs a reason when the reason is you
